Dear Mom,

I don't have an eight o'clock this morning so I'll take time to write you a line.

I went over to Edith's place yesterday afternoon & went to church with them. It sure was good to see all the kids again. We have two new members now. One is a preacher in the Agronomy department who had gone to school in the south & they are very anxious to see the student group enlarged. He (Bro. White) will teach our class on Sunday morn. & will hold a young people class on Sunday ~~evening~~ evening, too.

We had song service
last night.

Mrs. Horner, who is in Georgia now, had a stroke yesterday. So Paul is going to take ~~her~~ her two daughters down, so he won't be here Sunday.

The Radio says it's going up to 90° today, so I'd better wear something cool.

It's time for me to get ready for class so I'll have to sign off for now.

Love,
Shelma

P.S. Did my raincoat come yet?
Blease send the white buttons for my aqua & black striped dress & my moosehair when it comes.
